

SEEK PLAYS TO BE PRESENTED BY SHAKESPEAREAN ENGAGEMENT

Opens At the Belasco
Next Monday.

M. H. Sothorn and Julia Marlowe come to the Belasco Theater on Monday next to begin an engagement of one week, and during that period they will present seven of the nine plays in their Shakespearean repertoire, the selections ranging from the poet's fun-spiced comedies to his most sublime tragedies. Only one play, "Macbeth," will have two performances. So great has been the demand for seats that pressure is being brought to bear on Mr. Sothorn and Miss Marlowe for a special performance of those announced for Wednesday and Saturday.

The organization consists of over fifty regular members, these augmented by a large force of thoroughly drilled supernumeraries. The two eminent stars have unequivocally demonstrated that there is a tremendous demand for Shakespeare.

NATIONAL

Miss Emma Trentini will appear in the comic opera, "Naughty Marietta," at the National Theater next week. The operetta, in production at Hammerstein, and the two scenes are rich in color and design, representing the city of New Orleans as it was in 1780.

Victor Herbert's music is rich in harmony, the ensemble inspiring, and in a wide range of tempo, and the solo numbers so pretentious that they excel the general comic opera or musical comedy standard. The book, by Rida Johnson Young, is a love story, in which the hero is an American captain of the forest rangers; the heroine an Italian countess, who crosses the Atlantic disguised as a caquette girl.

The cast includes Henry Turpin, tenor; Miss Marion Lee, contralto; Henry Turpin, bass; William Welp, comedian; Miss Harriet Marlowe, W. W. Black, James S. Murray, Miss Vera De Rosa, Edwin Lyle, and Miss Brown.

COLUMBIA

William H. Crane as an actor-manager in association with Joseph Brooks, has a new comedy by Martha Morton called "The Senator Keeps House," which he will present at the Columbia Theater next week. The play is a story of Washington life, in which Mr. Crane assumes the role of a Senator from the Northwest, who is keeping house with his nephew.

The gentleman's pet aversions are widows, and a land deal called the Mason claim, the claimant of which is a widow with a pretty daughter. To influence the Senator to the committee of the Committee on Appropriations, the widow, concealing her identity, enters his home as a housekeeper. The plot is developed in the upsetting of the claim, the Senator's learning of the deception practiced upon him by the claimant, and the final solving of his household problem to the entire satisfaction of all concerned.

CHASE'S

Carrie De Mar, the comedienne, star of musical successes, in her latest comic song hits, will be the feature in Chase's bill next week. Her principal numbers will be "The Trouserettes," "For Sale—A Will," and "The Matinee Girl." For each there will be a change of costume and scenery. The extra added attraction will be Taylor Granville, a producer of "The Arizona Desert," showing a desperado's attempt to hold up a limited train, and a musical number, "A Dialect Duet growing out of a complicated linguistic colloquy will be brought to a finish by Billy Gordon and Ed Marx, German comedians. A musical treat is promised for the Berrens, two instrumental artists, Mr. and Mrs. Perkins D. Fisher, who formerly supported James A. Herne in "Drifting Apart," will be seen in their sketch, written by the late Sara Keadell, and entitled "The Half-Way House." The Kaufman Brothers, minstrel comedians, will include their minceface comic-relief Sprague and McNeese, in roller skating feats, and the photophone day-light motion pictures will conclude the noteworthy galaxy.

ACADEMY

All next week at the Academy, with the usual matinee on Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, the late E. J. Poynter will be seen in her latest success, "A Kentucky Romance," a four-act dramatic comedy by Joseph Le Brandt. The play depicts an interesting story of an artist who falls in love with and secretly marries the son of a proud widow, who had picked another choice for him. The widow learns of her son's supposed marriage, and the son in turn, in order to obtain a needed sum of money, becomes a gambler. Cynthia, his wife, breaks up the first part of the romance. Cynthia goes to New York, her husband, travels abroad, but in the end, of course, marital matters adjust themselves satisfactorily. Miss Poynter has a good cast to support her, including John Bowers, Edwin Dale, Sam J. Burton, Henry Gail, Ted V. Arnold, and a number of others. Bertha Julian, Francis Young, and others.

LYCEUM

The "High School Girls" Company will be the attraction at the Lyceum Theater commencing Monday, February 12. This organization has been before the public for years on the Empire circuit. The first act, entitled "The Dude Pug," is practically a musical comedy in miniature. It contains a novel plot and has many laughs. The other piece, "Get Trimmed Quick Rubes," moves swiftly and is full of real fun and novelty. Forty people are employed, including a chorus of twenty. The numbers have been staged by Leon Errol, who also wrote and put on the sketches. The olio contains some good vaudeville performers, among whom are mentioned Helen Lawton and Jessie York, in songs and dances; Joe Dixon and Joe Mills, in parodies; Fred Reese and Kitty Mitchell, harmony singing, and talking, and Stewart and Stevenson, in "The Laugh Trust."

GAYETY

Presenting a two-act musical farce called "Too Much Isaac," the "Bowery Burlesques" come to the Gayety next week. A travesty on the famous court room scene in "Madame X" is one of the specialties. As a feature, Harry Houdini, the world's champion handcuff king, will appear at every performance and give some startling new evidences of his ability as a master of locks and bolts. Many of these tests will be new to Washington.

COSMOS

An excellent program will be offered at the Cosmos the coming week, headed by "A Night in a Gypsy Camp," which is the title of a sketch in which a well-known Gypsy trio will be seen. "The Marvel of the Silhouette," Lanza Cox, will be seen in a characteristic display of his art, and John Dooley and Eddie Jones will be seen in a rollicking fun, "Paul and Crenonist" will be presented in a vaudeville sketch. Curing A Tenor. A song and dance act will be contributed by Quiley and Adair, and Pathe's Weekly Review of current events heads the list of film features.

ARCADE

The basketball team of the Catholic University will play the team of Mt. St. Mary's College, of Emmittsburg, Md., next Tuesday night in the Arcade skating rink. Roller skating will be in order before and after the game. Thursday night a contest royal is expected, the rivals being the team of the New York University of New York city, which is one of the best, and that of Georgetown, whose record places it at the front of all basketball teams this season.

JONES RECITAL

Devotees of Chopin are expected to be pleased with the program announced for the piano recital that Frank Norris Jones will give at the Columbia Theater next Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. The event will mark the first appearance in this country of the artist since his return from abroad, and for that reason not only is of unusual interest, but Mr. Jones has exerted himself to provide a program that will be calculated to please. Another feature of the occasion will be the rendition of Mozart's pastoral varieties, a posthumous work from an original manuscript. Other numbers upon the program will represent the compositions of Bach, von Weber, Schumann, Brahms, Debussy, and Liszt.

PICTURE PILGRIMAGE

An attractive series of picture pilgrimages will be offered in the three subjects to be presented by Nox McCain at the Columbia Theater upon three consecutive Sunday evenings, commencing March 3.

The first picture, which has a reputation as a travel lecturer, is "Mr. McCain's first season in Washington." The second, "The Wonderful West Indies," "The American Rockies," and "The Golden West."

NEWMAN TRAVELTALK

The autocratic power of the bureaucracy in Russia is almost unbelievable to the liberal-thinking American who is making his first visit, according to E. M. Newman, who toured Russia from the Black Sea to the Baltic last summer, and who will tell of his experience in one of his travel talks at the Columbia Theater on Sunday evening and Monday afternoon. He says that a comparatively small handful of men actually dominate the entire empire, and that there is no appeal from their conclusions, no matter how unreasonable they may seem.

The entire country presents an intense military aspect, and everything is subservient to the army. In this lecture Mr. Newman will devote his pictures especially to the capitals, "Moscow and St. Petersburg." The cities of Warsaw, in Poland, and Helsinki, in Finland, will also be visited.

OPERA IN BALTIMORE

After ten weeks of success in Chicago, the Chicago Grand Opera Company has returned to the East, and seven Thursday night performances will be given in the Lyric Theater, in Baltimore, before the close of the season. Thursday night the offering will be Wagner's "Die Walkure," the first Wagnerian work that the Chicago company has given in Baltimore. The cast will be the same that appeared in this opera in Chicago.

The Brunnhilde will be Minnie Saltzman-Stevens, the American soprano. The Siegmund will be Charles Delmore, the celebrated French tenor. The role of Wotan, the god, will be sung by Clarence Whitehall, formerly the leading Wagnerian baritone of the Metropolitan opera company. Henri Scott, the American basso, will be the Hunding. Eleonora de Clunier, the French contralto, will sing Fricka, and Jane Osborn-Hannan will be the Sieglinde. Alfred Scenderi will conduct the performance.

At the Belasco Theater next Sunday night Mrs. Esther Rachel Kaminsky, the celebrated Yiddish actress, who heads the Lipzin Theater company, comes direct from New York city, to present "The Orphan," by Jacob Gordin. Mrs. Kaminsky is claimed to be one of the foremost Yiddish speaking artists in this country and her work has a great appeal it is claimed. Mrs. Kaminsky will be supported by a strong cast, which will include Max Rosenthal and Charles Nathanson.

DOCTOR AND PERSON CARRIED BY APACHE TO ISLANDERS' AID

Revenue Cutter Attempts Second Relief Trip—Fishermen Have Food.

A second relief expedition to Holland's Island was undertaken by the Revenue Cutter Apache this morning to carry medical assistance to the islanders, who have been cut off from the outside world for the last five weeks.

The Apache reached Holland's Island yesterday after a nerve-straining and more or less perilous voyage through the ice floes and the solid barriers in Chesapeake bay, only to find that the supposedly stricken inhabitants were in good health and had supplies sufficient for weeks.

Captain Carmine, of the Apache, reported to Revenue Cutter headquarters by wireless that conditions on the island were normal and in no wise alarming. He gave no explanation of the distress signals from the island that have been attracting residents along the mainland night and day for nearly a week.

There is no doctor on the island to care for the sick, and the minister who ministers to the spiritual welfare of the islanders is unable to reach the island since Christmas. The doctor, who is employed on a yearly contract by the navy, is expected to look after sanitation and health measures, has also been absent since Christmas. The vessel crossed to the mainland at Deal's Neck to spend the day, and the ice barrier has been impenetrable ever since.

The Apache reached the island yesterday only with the greatest difficulty, and Captain Carmine in a telephone report to headquarters said that the islanders' health was not so good as it had been. He said that the islanders were suffering from lack of food, and that the islanders were suffering from lack of food, and that the islanders were suffering from lack of food.

The annual convention of the farmers of Montgomery county, at Sandy Spring, Monday, placed itself on record as opposed to all forms of legalized gambling in the State, and endorsed the bill now before the legislature, prohibiting gambling.

The convention also adopted a resolution favoring the repeal of the police justice law, and the passage of a law giving to magistrates increased powers. Following a paper by Allan Farquhar, of Sandy Spring, a portion of which was directed to be sent to the State Representatives in Congress, the convention endorsed the construction of a boulevard from Washington to Gettysburg as a memorial to President Lincoln.

Much time was devoted to a discussion of good roads, and Beverly R. Codwise, of Ochean, read a paper on the subject. The convention endorsed a suggestion that a road supervisor be appointed for each collection district. The proposition for a bond issue of $7,000,000 for the construction of good roads throughout the State was opposed in a resolution. Among those who addressed the convention were Allan Farquhar, John Thomas, Dr. Augustus Stabler, John E. Muncaster, Robert H. Miller, Mortimer Q. Stabler, Charles F. Kirk, Asa M. Stabler, Beverly R. Codwise, Dr. Eugene Nicholas, Howell Bond.

The funeral of Mrs. Caroline I. Brooke, widow of Walter H. Brooke, will take place at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the meeting house of the Society of Friends at Sandy Spring.

BREAKS A BAD COLD IN JUST A VERY FEW HOURS

Proves Quinine is never effective in the cure of a severe cold or the Grippe.

Nothing else that you can take will break your cold or end grippe so promptly as a dose of Pape's Cold Compound every two hours until three consecutive doses are taken.

The most miserable headache, dizziness, head and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, running of the nose, sore throat, mucous catarrhal discharges, soreness, stiffness, rheumatism, pains and other distress begin to leave after the very first dose.

Pape's Cold Compound is the result of three years' research at a cost of more than fifty thousand dollars, and contains no quinine, which we have conclusively demonstrated is not effective in the treatment of colds or grippe.

Take this harmless Compound as directed, with the knowledge that there is no other medicine made anywhere else in the world, which will cure your cold or end Grippe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects as a 25-cent dose of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist in the world can supply.

DELEGATE TO ASK LEGISLATURE FOR ROAD IMPROVEMENT

Up-to-Date Pike Desired From Kensington, Md., to Georgetown Turnpike.

ROCKVILLE, Md., Feb. 8.—Among the roads in this county which probably will be improved in the near future is that from Kensington to Garrett Park to the Rockville and Georgetown turnpike, a distance of less than two miles. At the request of a large delegation of citizens from Kensington and Garrett Park, Delegate Andrew J. Cummings has prepared a bill for introduction in the legislature providing for the construction of an up-to-date pike along the route indicated. The work will cost about $10,000, which will be borne by the three districts through which the road will pass.

Miss Lillian Cassell was hostess at a dance at the home of her mother, Mrs. George W. Cassell, near Olney, a few evenings ago.

The stockholders of the Washington and Rockville Electric Railway Company, at their meeting in Rockville, elected directors to serve one year as follows: Charles J. Bell, George F. Russell, Miller E. Allen, Woodbury Blair, W. F. Ham, W. S. Hibbs, Clarence P. King, Clarence F. Norment and L. W. Glazebrook.

The marriage of Mrs. Susan E. L. V. Butcher, of Gathersburg, and Richard C. Dickerson, took place at the home of a friend of the bride in Gathersburg. The Rev. J. I. Winger, of the Methodist Church, at Gathersburg, officiated.

It is understood the legislature will be asked to redistrict Montgomery county. It is planned to change this, the fourth district, by cutting out Darnestown election district and adding it to the second collection district, leaving this district composed of Bethesda, Rockville, Potomac and a part of Gathersburg election districts.

"Premium" Oleomargarine

Oleomargarine is made and sold as Oleomargarine and has its commercial existence under that name. It should be accorded the right of existence as such. Oleomargarine is an article of legitimate manufacture. Why should the matter of its coloration with harmless color be considered cause for imposing a penalty upon it? Butter has the right to be colored. If butter is more pleasing to the eye and seemingly more palatable when colored why should not another legitimate article of commerce, Oleomargarine, have the right to be colored?

Swift's Premium Oleomargarine is made in new sanitary factories, open to the daily inspection of the general public and always in charge of U. S. Government Inspectors, who pass on the quality and condition of all materials; see that everything is kept absolutely clean, and that every provision of the law governing the manufacture of Oleomargarine and its sale by the manufacturer is strictly complied with.

When you try "Swift's Premium Oleomargarine" you will find that it is a sweet, pure, clean food product that you can serve on your table and offer to your guests without apology.

Ask your dealer for Swift's Premium Oleomargarine. He will supply you if you insist.
